NELSON OUTDOOR & ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES

UPDATED
FOR 2024

Nelson Outdoor & Environmental Studies VCE Units 1-4 5E

Available Dec 2023

$82.95 Print + eBook

Nelson Outdoor and Environmental Studies VCE Units 1-4 5ed aligns explicitly with the new VCE Outdoor and Environmental Studies Study Design (2024-2028). Written by expert teachers, this new edition guides students through the key knowledge and skills in each Area of Study to support them through the practical and theoretical demands of the course.

This new edition includes all types of outdoor environments and explores Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples' perspectives on outdoor environments. The tailored resources integrate up-to-date case studies, exam practice and support for exam preparation, as well as differentiated activities throughout to check for understanding and provide opportunities for revision and extension.

Features you will love:

- Carefully constructed to meet the requirements of the new VCE Outdoor and Environmental Study Design 2023-2028
- Each chapter has been designed with a clear structure and covers one Area of Study in the new Study Design
- A detailed exploration of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples' perspectives on the ways humans relate to outdoor environments in both a historical and contemporary context
- Bloom's taxonomy underpins the differentiation of content and student understanding with key activities, investigations, and digital resources
- Practice exam questions for each Area of Study are included at the end of each chapter with exemplar responses and advice on how to craft high-scoring answers provided in Nelson MindTap
- A wide range of activities throughout help students develop and practise their critical thinking skills
- New activities designed to check for understanding and provide opportunities for revision and extension help support students with the more challenging areas of the new study design
