RRP: $14.99

It's 1940, and Joseph has been packed off to stay with Mrs F, a gruff woman with no great fondness for children. To Joseph's amazement, she owns the rundown city zoo where Joseph meets Adonis, a huge silverback gorilla. Adonis is ferociously strong and dangerous, but Joseph finds he has an affinity with the lonely beast. But when the bombs begin to fall, it is up to Joseph to guard Adonis's cage should it be damaged by a blast. Will Joseph be ready to pull the trigger if it comes to it?

We Were Wolves

Author: Jason Cockcroft

Published: June 2021

Age: 13+

Genre: Thriller

RRP: $26.99

An intense, darkly spellbinding story of a boy living in a caravan on his own in the woods, awaiting his father's return from prison. All he needs to do is survive alone for a little while longer. But dark forces are circling – like the dangerous man in the Range Rover. And then there are the ancient forces that have lain asleep in the woods for an Age

A truly original and affecting piece of work. Unsettling but beautiful, sparse but packed with heart, it's a real invasion of the senses.

Why you need it?

- A book about grief & loss, but mainly love
- Themes of PTSD, loyalty, bond between father & son, & strength of character
- Gorgeous illustrations from a Harry Potter series illustrator

Echo in the Memory

Solstice

Author: Lorence Alison

Published: April 2021

Age: Middle Fiction + Senior Fiction

Genre: Teen Horror Comedy

RRP $18.99

When Adri is offered an all-expenses-paid trip to the exclusive Solstice Festival, it feels like the graduation gift of a lifetime! But when she arrives, she quickly realizes it's not Instagram-ready. There's no water, no food, and no security in sight - which means there's no one to help when a dead body is found on the beach. With connections to the festival planners, Adri gets a front-row seat as everything devolves into chaos and she's in a prime position to put together the clues to who - or what - is killing off the crowd one by one.

This is teen horror at its best: fun, topical, and with regular updates on social media as everything goes horribly wrong. It invites you to check your privilege at the door - before it gets you killed.

Why you need it?

- Part teen drama, part horror story
- Appealing to reluctant readers
- Inspired by the disaster that was Fyre Festival

Better Than the Best Plan

Author: Lauren Morrill

Published: May 2021

Age: Middle Fiction + Senior Fiction

Genre: Romance & Relationships

RRP $18.99

It's the last day of junior year, and 17-year-old Ritzy is pretty sure she has a great plan – a summer job, hang with friends at the beach and keep looking after herself as she's been doing since her mum bailed. But after someone reports that Ritzy is living alone, a social worker shows up and puts her into foster care. That's surprise enough. Even more surprising? Ritzy has been in foster care before, as an infant, and the woman who cared for her then takes her in again. But maybe the greatest surprise of all for Ritzy is that living with her foster mother, Kristin, in Kristin's gorgeous house, isn't all that bad. And neither is the cute, friendly boy next door. When Ritzy's old life catches up with her new one, she has some decisions to make. Can she plan for the worst, but still hope for the best?

Why you need it?

- A fresh, funny, YA novel
- A clean teen novel with plenty of romance but no sexual content
- Honest & endearing characters

Published: May 2021

Age: Middle Fiction + Senior Fiction

Genre: Thriller

RRP $18.99

Liv's father went missing two years ago, not long after he claimed to have been abducted by aliens. Liv has long accepted that he's dead, though she hasn't given up their traditions. Every Sunday, she and her friend Doug trudge through the woods to check the traps Lee left behind to catch the aliens he so desperately believed were after him. But Liv is done pretending she believes her father's absurd theories. However, on the very day she chooses to destroy the traps, she discovers in one of them a creature so inhuman it can only be one thing. In that moment, she's faced with a painful realisation: her dad was telling the truth. Now she and Doug have a choice to make, they can turn the alien over to the authorities...or they can take matters into their own hands.

Why you need it?

- Expertly blends horror & science fiction
- Difficult to put down
- Explores trauma of losing a parent

Escape from Manus, The untold true story

Author: Jaivet Ealom
Published: July 2021
Age: Senior Fiction
Genre: Memoirs, True Story
RRP: $34.99

The awe-inspiring story of the only person to successfully escape from Australia's notorious offshore detention centre on Manus Island.

In 2013 Jaivet Ealom fled Myanmar's brutal regime and boarded a boat of asylum seekers bound for Australia. Instead of receiving refuge, he was transported to Australia's infamous Manus Regional Processing Centre. Blistering hot days on the island turned into weeks, then years until, finally, facing either jail in Papua New Guinea or being returned to almost certain death in Myanmar, he took matters into his own hands. Drawing inspiration from the hit show Prison Break, Jaivet meticulously planned his escape. He made it out alive but was stateless, with no ID or passport. While the nightmare of Manus was behind him, his true escape to freedom had only just begun.

Why you need it?

- A true story of bravery and resilience
- Explores the plight of refugees and political asylum
- A powerful and arresting autobiography
